

Lismore Mayor Jenny Dowell awards regional Senior Volunteer of the Year Award to John Ingram for his tireless work with Coast Guard Kingscliff.

The overall winner for the Northern Rivers Volunteer of the Year Award was Ian Carlson (absent as he was volunteering that day!) for his dedication and hard work with the Tweed Heads State Emergency Service.

Steven Moore (L) and Scott Wilson (R) from NORTEC Employment and Training with Lismore Mayor Jenny Dowell.

NORTEC Volunteering (a division of NORTEC ) coordinated the awards ceremony again this year.

The ceremony was hosted by Ballina Seabird Rescue at their Ballina premises.

The ceremony was part of a Nationwide campaign that recognises the dedication and hard work of Australian volunteers, as part of International Volunteers Day on December 5.
